This is important to her:
representation of all body types in the European media landscapes, fairness and solidarity towards each other and a more understanding togetherness.

This is Vero:
Vero Eli Schwarz is impulsive, talkative and often finds herself caught in situational humorous events even though she can be quite thoughtful and sceptic. She likes to play pen&paper Cthulhu adventures, binges British and US-American TV shows, listens to German underground hip hop, reads feminist literature and is not afraid to raise attention by wearing loud and colorful outfits. First and foremost though, she loves her job.
